

Saber Hosseini

Founder of Mobile Libraries and Child Foundation

Saber Hosseini was born on 1982 in Bamyan, Afghanistan. He has been engaged in fiction literature. Since more than two years ago, his activities have started in Bamyan province. He started delivering books to children with bicycle. One of the most remarkable achievements of his activities has been establishing eight children libraries with more than thirty one thousands books. Early activities was mainly focused on Bamyan. However, with increased volume of books and sense of community among locals, the activities spreaded to other villages including Yakavlang and Saighan, even in other cities such as Kabul and Mazar sharif. His mobile libraries is an initiative which helped a lot of children in remote areas to access the education and book.
